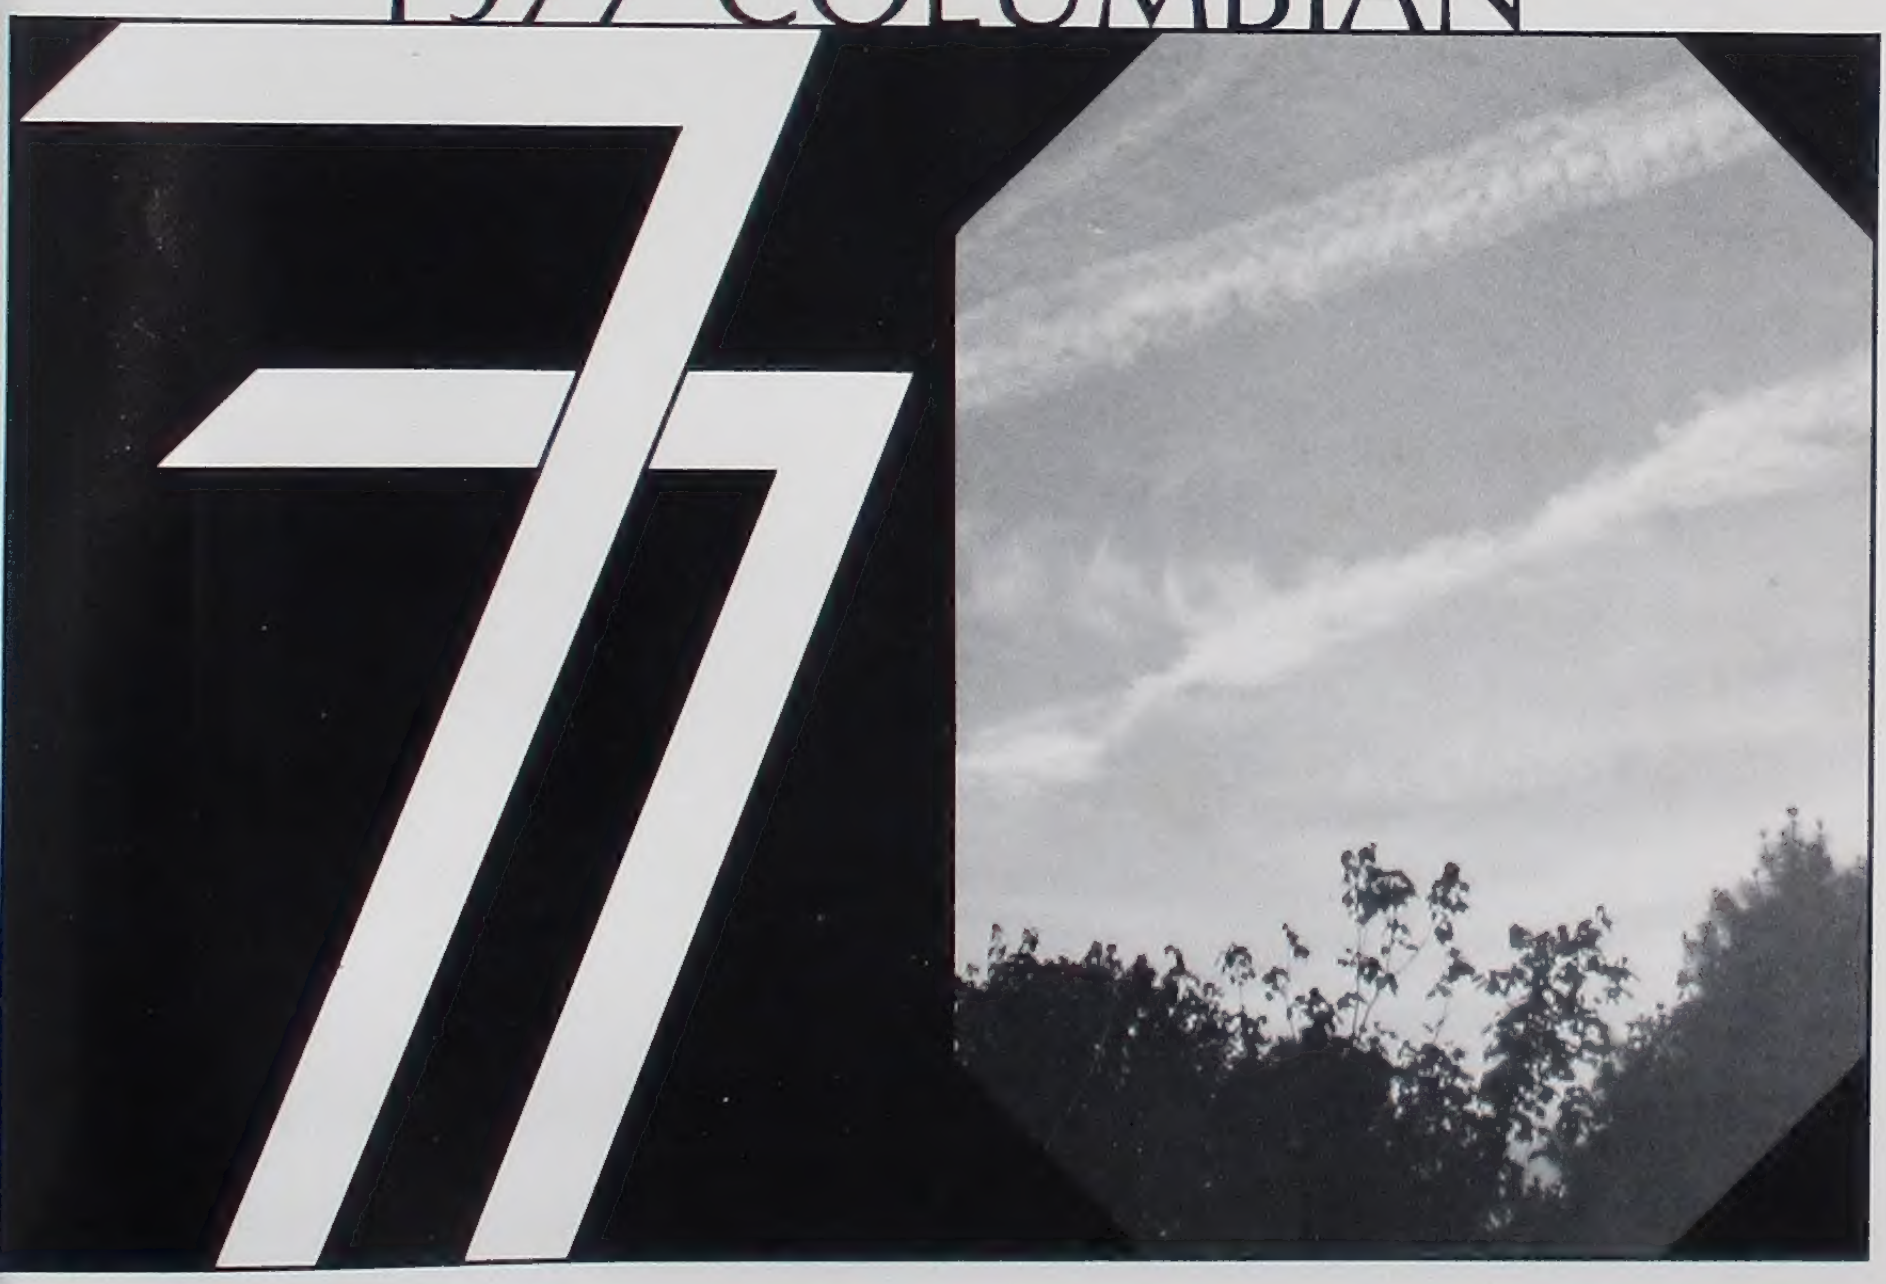
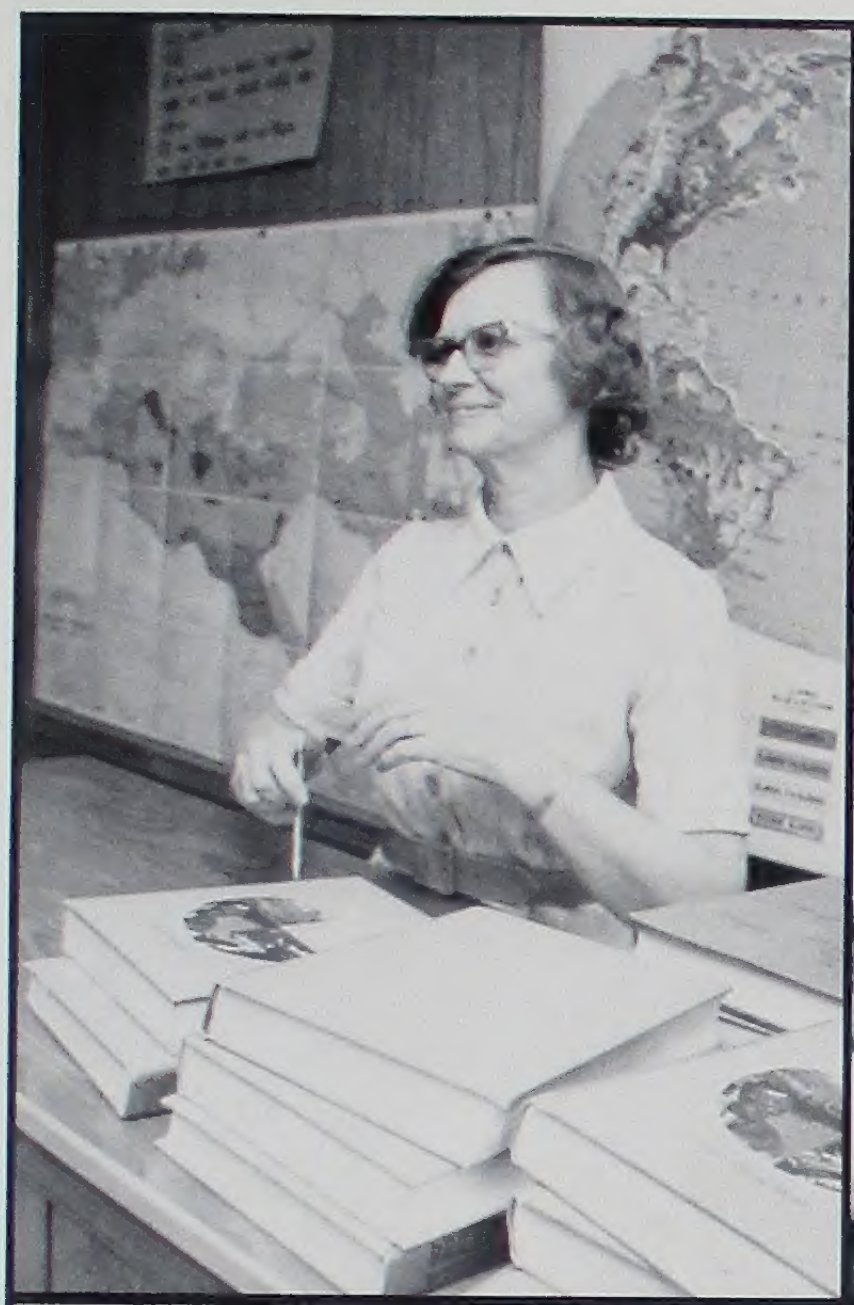
1977 COLUMBIAN



The 1977 Columbian is composed of memories of the 1976-77 school year.

Dedication



The Columbian Staff dedicates the '77 Columbian to its advisor, Mrs. Madge Van Horne, for her time, service, and encouragement in helping us to see the true values in life.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Seven, being of sound mind and body, do hereby establish and declare this document to be our Last Will and Testament.

Article I

To our devoted parents, we leave many thanks, our greatest respect, and our sincere appreciation for making all this possible.

Article II

To the administration, we leave our deepest appreciation for their efforts toward increasing our wisdom.

Section I

To the Juniors, we leave the prospects of becoming Seniors and the good times of the last year of high school.

Section II

To the Sophomores, we leave the challenge of planning the Junior-Senior Prom, and the pleasure of receiving class rings.

Section III

To the Freshmen, we leave the pleasures, responsibilities, and disappointments of high school.

Article III

I, David Alexander, leave my middle name, Newberry, to Leslie, Laurie, and Billie.

I, Jacqueline Alexander, leave CHS hoping to someday start a very successful life for myself.

I, Myron Alexander, leave happily, knowing that my sister Genenine will remain behind to pester Mr. Baum.

I, Phyllis Ambrose, leave my intelligent ways to Darlene Etheridge.

I, Connie Armstrong, leave my grades and ability to stay out of trouble to my brothers, Mark and Jeff.

I, Jennifer Armstrong, leave "my Clark Bars" to Mr. Baum, my love and Bus 13 to Tommy, and peace and quiet to "Miss" Sara's office.

I, Althea Basnight, leave all my worldly possessions, including my estate, to Nora Basnight.

I, Diana Basnight, leave CHS to join my daughter Deanna. I leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Debra Swain and my brother Kirk.

I, Drucilla Basnight, leave CHS to have some free time with my husband Roland.

I, Frances Basnight, leave CHS to make a better life for myself.

I, Jacqueline Basnight, leave CHS hoping to join Garnett in Africa.

I, Patricia Basnight, leave my 1977 Trans Am with an automatic cigarette maker to Brian Spencer.

I, Sammy Beaufort, leave my ability to become a senior to my sister Rebecca.

I, Johnny Beck, leave CHS still smiling. I leave my ability to sing solos to my sister Debbie, and my personality to my brother Phil.

I, Joseph Belangia, leave my ability to pester Mr. Baum to anyone who can handle the punishment.

I, Sara Belangia, leave Bus 1 and my rubber ducky to my sister Frances.

I, David Brickhouse, leave my height to Durwood Cooper, Jr.

I, Aubrey Bryant, leave to join Miss Doris Liverman in Holy Matrimony.

I, Craig Bryant, leave my natural ability to get on the loving side of teachers to my brother Kirk and my sister Renetta.

I, Mitchell Bryant, leave my ability to lose weight to Rico Hill.

I, Dale Cahoon, leave Bus 8 to my sister Karen, and Mrs. Simmons and all of her business books to my sister Brenda.

I, Grace Combs, leave my figure to my sister Linda and my friend Gwen Sykes.

I, Johnny Combs, leave CHS to stay out of trouble.

I, Gary Cooper, leave my position as President of Cooper's Hog Farm to Mrs. Jarman (if she can stand the smell).

I, Larry Cox, leave my position in the band to anyone who is "BIG" enough.

I, John Davis, leave my afro to Bobby Collins.

I, Randy Dunbar, leave CHS hoping that my younger brother Michael will soon follow.

I, Lorraine Etheridge, leave my good grades to my sister Darlene.

I, Tony Etheridge, leave my ability to cut classes to anyone smart enough to get by with it.

I, Charmain Fenner, leave all my 12th grade books and my luck to the upcoming seniors.

of the Class of 1977

I, Chris Fenner, with my head pointed skyward, hoping to become a success, leave my deepest sympathy to everyone remaining at CHS.

I, Marilyn Gaden, leave my shorthand to the chickens. I'm sure they can do more with it.

I, Glenn Gibbs, leave CHS hoping that all my brothers and sisters soon follow.

I, Doreatha Hill, leave all my abilities to Alease Moore and to my sister Sharon. May the best be yours!

I, Elaine G. Jones, leave CHS to go home and fix supper for Carl.

I, Wonda Leary, leave CHS hoping that Willie Mae Sykes and Brenda Respass will soon follow.

I, William Lee, leave CHS to join the Dallas Cowboys.

I, Allen Liverman, leave CHS to find true peace of mind with the hope that everyone will find the same.

I, Rudy Liverman, leave to get away from Gum Neck.

I, George McClees, leave my football ability to my brother FROG.

I, Luther McCleese, leave my good thinking habits to my sister Sandra.

I, Kenny Norman, being of sound mind and bald head, leave my quiet and orderly ways to my brother Kelly.

I, Tim Oliver, leave my "Simon Stimson" character to Steve Robbins.

I, Hope Owens, leave my ability to become a Beta Club member (after 2 years of trying) to my sister Kim.

I, Gale Pledger, leave CHS hoping that I and my son, Tyrese Roger, will have much success.

I Sheila Reynolds, leave to my teachers "Thanks for understanding" and to my parents "My love and God's blessings."

I. Jeanette Rhines, leave CHS hoping that Natalie Gibbs will have a better attitude toward her friends than she has now.

I, Cindy Rose, leave to join Peal's University to find a brain cure for my brother Boyd.

I, Charles Roulhac leave CHS hoping that my brother Barry will succeed.

I. Cynthia Sawyer, wish the best of life to my sister Debbie and my friend Cathy Cox. I leave CHS daring to be different if different is right.

I, Janice Sawyer, leave to join my husband Melvin and my son Junior in Creswell.

I, Sandra Simpson, leave CHS hoping to join Raymond Alexander in Greensboro.

I, Areatha Skinner, leave CHS hoping to find PEACE, LOVE, and HAPPINESS, and hoping that my brothers and sisters will soon follow.

I, Robyn Skinner, leave in search of Mr. Right.

I, Fran Smith, leave CHS to be with my "SUG."

I, Joey Smith, leave CHS in hopes that Leslie Landino will follow.

I, Rebecca Spencer, leave CHS to join Rufus Basnight in Great Lakes, Illinois.

I, Ricky Spencer, leave CHS hoping to find and marry my wonderful and beautiful young lady.

I, Stanley Spencer, leave CHS, thanking everyone who has been a part of my life, especially my step-mother.

I, Timmy Spencer, leave CHS, taking my athletic ability, to follow in "Milkman's" footsteps.

I, Vivian Spencer, leave CHS hoping to have a nice future and hoping that Myra, Frances, Pearl, and my sister Mamie will soon follow.

I, Peggie Spruill, leave my ability to get a good education to my brothers, Tony and David, and my niece Tamika.

I, Delbert Steeley, leave my height and good behavior to my "small" sister Robin.

I, Dawn Swain, leave my outspoken tongue and snobbish manner to Linda Brickhouse.

I, Karen Swain, leave my ability to arrive at school just before the tardy bell to anyone who has a fast car and good nerves.

I, Albert Sykes, finally leave . . .

I, Arnold Sykes, leave to continue my career with God hoping to join Leonard and Dearl Brickhouse.

I, Lantz Van Horn, leave my three years' probation and $260.00 fine to Robbie Gray.

I, Joyce Voliva, leave my curiosity, my mischievousness, and my ability to get around my teachers to my brother Tim.

I, Hubert Ward, leave my helpful self to Mrs. Margaret McClees.

I, Keith Wynn, leave CHS to join someone I dearly love and to go into business with my brother Bruce.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the Class of '77 to be their Last Will and Testament.

The Class of 1977
Jacqueline Basnight, President

Remember to Remember

To remember . . .
. . . how you affected my life.
We met but a yesterday ago, remember?
Taking the time to know each other,
share our thoughts, our possessions, ourselves.
Now we are united . . .
in spirit . . .
shared beliefs . . .
dreams . . . and horizons . . .
There are parts of you that dwell and grow in me.
These pieces of you have strengthened me.
now I am whole — with you . . .
. . . I've spent much time
. . . I've contemplated the future
. . . I've prayed for tomorrow
. . I've changed my perspective of myself because of what you've added to me.
I am better because of you . . .
your contribution of mind, peace,
upheaval, and caring love.
When we part, remember . . .
I will miss you, cry for you,
and feel the emptiness of your absence,
but out of this cavern will come the knowledge that pain from separation is far sweeter than the hollowness of never caring.
The contact we have had with each other has been a blessing.
Cultivate . . . your ideas,
Cherish . . . your memories,
Remember . . . your dreams,
. . . Ours.
Together — we are.
I feel as if I have forever known you.
Perhaps . . .
Maybe . . .
I have.
As we part,
Remember to remember.
